JANE BROOK ESTATE WINES

“THE DAVID ATKINSON SERIES”

LIQUEURS & FORTIFIEDS

Tawny Port :

The Swan Valley is renowned for its ports and the Jane Brook Tawny Port was vintaged by David Atkinson from Shiraz, Cabernet Sauvignon and Grenache grapes. The original wine is from the late 1970s and has been blended and aged in a horizontal solero system of old American oak hogsheads. The wine has a classic tawny colour, excellent aged rancio nose, a fine dry palate and an average age of 20+ years.

Gold Medal : 2003 Swan Valley Wine Show

RRP $35.00

Liqueur Muscat:

Produced entirely from Muscat of Alexandria grapes grown on the sandy gravel soils of the Jane Brook vineyard, this liqueur was vintaged by David Atkinson during his first vintage in 1973. The liqueur has been aged in American oak hogsheads blended with wines vintaged in the late 1980s and mid 1990s. The wine has an aged Muscat bouquet reminiscent of raisins, with a full palate and the smooth, long finish for which this variety is renowned.

Gold Medal : 1975 Perth Royal Show

RRP $65.00

Liqueur Tokay:

This luscious dessert wine vintaged by David Atkinson has spent its life since 1976 quietly ageing in American oak hogsheads with other years added to the blend in 1985 and 1992. The youngest barrel of Tokay is 19 years old. The Tokay has a deep dark brown colour, a bouquet with abundant fruit and brandy and a smooth rich palate reminiscent of Xmas pudding. An exquisite after-dinner indulgence.

Trophy Winner 1996 and 2000 Swan Valley Wine Show

RRP $85.00

Liqueur Verdelho:

A magnificent dessert wine produced from Verdelho grapes, vintaged in 1967 with a second blend produced by David Atkinson in 1976. This unique liqueur aged in French oak hogsheads has developed an almost green olive luminescent colour which is a sign of a well-aged fortified wine. The Liqueur Verdelho has a smooth, full rich palate and a lingering finish....to be savoured after dinner with great coffee and chocolates.

Winner of 4 Sheraton Gold Medals & Trophies 2001, 2003, 2004 & 2009 plus Gold Medal & Best Wine of 2000 Swan Valley Wine Show.
